A FEW EXTRACTS
FROM NOTICES RECEIVED IN RELATION TO
THE SCIENCE OF A NEW LIFE
BY JOHN COWAN, M. D.

These notices were entirely unsolicited. They are the free untrammelled expression of papers of acknowledged authority and power; of persons of recognized merit and reputation; and of readers, who on paying for and studying the book, felt impressed to send their meed of praise. Of the many extracts from readers letters, those given here are but a moiety of the hundreds on file at the office of the publishers.

No other book yet published on the subject on which this one treats, has met with so universal an approval for the unexceptionable manner in which it advances rules and suggestion for the elevation and happiness of man and womankind.

[From the Christian Union, New York.]

A new Edition of "The Science of a New Life" gives us the opportunity of saying that it seems to us to be one of the wisest and purest and most helpful of those books which have been written in recent years with the intention of teaching men and women the truths about their bodies which are of peculiar importance to the morals of society. It will be understood that we here refer to treatises on sexual physiology. No one can begin to imagine the misery that has come upon the human family solely through ignorance upon this subject. Of course, only a man who is more than learned, who is wise and good also, can safely be entrusted with the duty of writing such a book. The spirit in which Dr. Cowan has written is apparently that of earnest devotion to the welfare of mankind.
